

Teal Street Center

Southeast Alaska's Social Services Hub

An innovative, multi-tenant social service facility offering accessible, inclusive, coordinated and comprehensive programs, tools and resources to meet the critical needs of Southeast Alaskans.

Set in the heart of Juneau's growing social services campus, Teal Street Center will serve more than 3,000 people each year of all ages, cultures and socioeconomic groups. It will be a permanent, convenient and welcoming hub of resources for those experiencing physical or mental health disabilities, elders, veterans, youth, cancer patients, those who are homeless, and low-income households. The center will eliminate the difficulties of transportation, time and cost for clients trying to meet with scattered providers, strengthen quality social service delivery, and is designed to be uplifting - a place of dignity for beneficiaries and employees.

Teal Street Center Services and Benefits

- Employment and benefits counseling
- Youth mentoring and peer support
- Legal assistance
- Mental health services
- Durable medical and adaptive equipment check-out
- Suicide prevention programs
- Independent living skills training and accessible recreation programs
- Supportive housing services
- Tlingit & Haida navigator and kiosk services to guide tribal citizens to resources
- Rotating regular services offered by additional complimentary providers in the Resource Room

A Campus Hub for Collaboration, Innovation and Sustainability

Located on the corner of Teal and Alpine streets in the Mendenhall Valley, Teal Street Center will be next door to the new Glory Hall shelter and soup kitchen, across the street from St. Vincent de Paul's low-income senior housing and transitional housing units, and around the corner from Juneau Youth Services' office and Tlingit & Haida's Head Start program. This proximity will allow partners to:

- Provide simple access to multiple appointments in a centralized location
- Enhance collaboration between professionals and clients for cohesive services, referrals and client transitions
- Reduce communication barriers and lag times
- Increase agency efficiency and sustainability by sharing and maximizing resources
- Create greater public awareness and use of the wide range of resources available

A Proven and Needed Model

First conceived in 2002, Teal Street Center's one-stop collective impact model has been tested in Juneau since 2013 and in other communities across the country. Studies by McKinley Research Group (including work by its former name McDowell Group) between 2008 -2021 confirm significant need and demand for one or more social service centers, as well as short and long-term economic benefits.

"Including all direct, indirect and induced impacts, the construction phase of the project would support a total of 70 jobs, $4.4 million in total payroll, and $9.7 million in economic activity."

McKinley Research Group, Sept. 2020

United Human Services of SE Alaska (UHS), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit incorporated in 2009, is coordinating fundraising and construction of Teal Street Center and will operate it when it opens. After more than a decade of preparation, Teal Street Center will truly fulfill the UHS mission of facilitating collaboration of our health and social services organizations to achieve healthy outcomes for the people and communities they serve.

Teal Street Center Tenants

Alaska Legal Services: Alaska Legal Services is a nonprofit, statewide law firm dedicated to providing access to justice for those in need. Our mission is to resolve critical health, housing, safety, and income maintenance issues for low-income and disadvantaged residents through legal representation. For many residents who cannot afford a private attorney, ALSC is the only option for civil legal help, as there is no right to court-appointed counsel in civil cases.

AWARE: AWARE's mission is to provide safe shelter and supportive services for survivors of domestic or sexual violence; and to effect the social, political, and legal changes needed to eliminate oppression, gender violence, and violence against children. Victim/survivor services are free and confidential. Services include safe shelter, legal, housing, and child advocacy, and work with community agencies and helping folks access services they need. AWARE also coordinates the Juneau Choice & Accountability Program (JCAP), working with men who have abused power and control in their relationships or who want to learn new ways of expressing manhood.

Cancer Connection: Cancer Connection provides travel assistance, counseling assistance, support groups, a community health forum, and other education and awareness resources and events for Southeast Alaskans and their support systems. Cancer Connection's mission is to bring together health and wellness resources for people residing in Southeast Alaska, thereby empowering them to make sound decisions and choices with the goal of prolonging their quality of life whether in time of crisis or fulfillment.

Central Council Tlingit & Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska: Tlingit & Haida is a federally-recognized tribal government established to protect, preserve and advocate for the rights of Tlingit and Haida people through self-governance, self-determination and tribal administration. Our mission is to preserve our sovereignty, enhance our economic and cultural resources, and promote self-sufficiency and self-governance for our citizens.

Disability Law Center of Alaska: The federally funded Protection and Advocacy System for persons with disabilities in Alaska. DLC is the only statewide disability agency in Alaska that provides self-advocacy assistance, legal services, disability rights education and public policy advocacy. DLC's vision is "a future where people with disabilities are empowered to exercise individual choice and be equal participants in the community where they live, learn, work and play."

National Alliance for Mental Illness (NAMI) Juneau: NAMI Juneau provides education, support, and advocacy to help individuals and families affected by mental illness build better lives. We serve Juneau residents in recovery from mental illness and/or substance use as well as their families.

Juneau Suicide Prevention Coalition: The Coalition is committed to reducing the loss and suffering caused by suicide and suicidal behavior in Juneau and offers information and education about issues relating to suicide, as well as support to families and community members who have lost loved ones to suicide.

Southeast Alaska Independent Living (SAIL): SAIL empowers elders and people with physical and mental health disabilities by providing services and information to support them in making choices that will positively affect their independence and productivity in society.

United Way of Southeast Alaska: With the help of our 33 partner agencies, UWSEAK works to create real, lasting change by addressing the underlying causes of problems within our communities. We support programs and initiatives that help those in need.

Teal Street Center Resource Room Occupants

United Human Services is coordinating with additional complimentary providers to provide services from our ground-floor Resource Room and adjacent parking lot on a rotating basis. UHS has secured commitments from below programs. We are negotiating with additional strategic providers such as the State of Alaska Public Assistance and the federal Social Security Administration.

Alaskan Aids Assistance Assoc. (Four A's): Aids Assistance and Prevention Services. The mission of Four A's is to support and empower people living with or affected by HIV/AIDS and to work toward the elimination of HIV infection and its stigma in all Alaskan communities.

Bartlett Regional Hospital Community Housing Navigator: Bartlett's Housing Navigator Program serves homeless and at-risk adults who are referred by social service and behavioral health providers throughout Juneau, to assist them in finding permanent housing. Recipients do not have to be a Bartlett patient to receive Navigator services.

SERRC Adult Education & GED Services- The Learning Connection: SERRC's adult education program helps those 16+ build skills and get connected with education, trades training and employment opportunities.

State of Alaska Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR): DVR helps Alaskans with disabilities prepare for, get and keep good jobs. DVR works with partners like SAIL to help those with physical, intellectual, or mental conditions overcome barriers to employment.

SEARHC/Front Street Clinic Mobile Medicine Van: The mobile medicine van will offer medical and behavioral health services, as well as vaccinations, twice a week from a dedicated spot in the Teal Street Campus.
